MHDA Mission: To promote the education of and appreciation for Decorative Painting.

From Pat's Pen ~

Hi Ladies,

There is a slight change in the air. Fall is around the corner and we are all getting busy again.

MHDA has a display in the Crystal River library this month. I forgot about it until the last minute so I didn't remind everyone to bring in something to show, I called a few folks at the last minute and we have a nice variety of painting styles represented. The ladies at the library were all compliments as I was putting up the display.

Elections are coming up, so think of stepping into a position if asked, Willing helpers keep the chapter running smoothly.

Dues are due next month and you have until December until you are delinquent. The best thing is to pay them right away and you can forget about it.

We have some nice programs coming up and the Christmas stuff is falling into place.

I am looking forward to seeing all you snow birds back with new painting projects to show us.

Pat Otto
